3. Guest Speakers:
 - a. Michelle Kalil (Dial-A-Teacher) - The Dial-A-Teacher program is collaboration between the United Federation of Teachers and the Department of Education, designed to assist students and parents with homework. Celebrating 31 years of service, the Dial A Teacher program continues to help build links between the home and school. Parents can call to get information on how to help their children at home and reinforce basic skills learned in school. Students can receive homework assistance in Reading, Writing, Math, Science, and Social Studies. During the 2010-2011 school year Dial-A- Teacher provided homework assistance to more than 80,000 callers, in nine different languages. The Dial-A-Teacher outreach program offers workshops to help parents learn about new methods and materials being used in schools, as well as resources available to them and their children.
 - b. David Kazansky, Director of School Safety & Victim Support Program (UFT) – Be BRAVE Against Bullying
